ART B.F.A. - Concentration in Art History

A concentration in Art History provides students with a basic foundation for pursuing studies and training in fine arts, art history, gallery/museum administration and in diverse cultural institutions. Students delve into the cultural, social, and political contexts that have shaped art movements throughout history, analyzing diverse forms ranging from ancient artifacts to contemporary installations.

Essential Skills

Essential skills refer to the knowledge gained from a liberal arts education. They provide a framework to guide students' progress toward their degree, but also prepare students for a broad range of career paths. A recent survey from the Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) shows employers "strongly agree" that "regardless of a student's field of study" liberal arts skills best prepare students to enter the job market in their career of choice.
