

Auditor Information

PRIME (age 62 and over), Alumni, S. MaryCeleste Beck, and Auditors

After Late Registration/Late Change of Program ends (after the first 5 weekday class meetings of Fall or Spring terms), auditors may sign-up: 9:00am - 7:00pm -In-person Registration for PRIME , ALUMNI, and general AUDITORS (See Academic Calendar for specific dates.)

Most courses, except for Nursing, Allied Health, Education, Music Therapy, Speech-Language Pathology/Audiology and Graduate Business courses, are open to auditors, unless otherwise indicated. (Auditors for graduate courses must be matriculated and registered for credit in the specific graduate program of study in order to audit on the graduate-level.) Registration is on a space available basis only. Records are maintained for audited courses. However, credit will not be granted for audited courses. See the catalog for additional policies.

- PRIME students may audit for an administrative fee of $50.00 per course and any special course fees. Registration for auditors must be done in-person at the Registrar's Office.
- ALUMNI may also audit under the Alumni Lifetime Scholarship by paying all non-tuition fees. Registration must be done in-person in the Registrar's Office.
- SISTER CELESTE BECK AND THE DIOCESAN CERTIFICATE PROGRAM IN THEOLOGY must consult the Continuing Education Bulletin. The Office of Continuing Education will have information on available courses and fees.
- Auditors not in these groups should see the catalog for details on fees and other policies.
