

English: Literature B.A.

The Literature B.A. allows students to explore literature from ancient Greece up through contemporary American cultures. Students gain a breadth of literary knowledge from survey courses in British and American literature, but also delve deeply into literary periods and movements. The degree culminates in a capstone experience that teaches students to apply literary theory to various literary genres and styles.

Essential Skills:

Essential skills refer to the knowledge gained from a liberal arts education. They provide a framework to guide students' progress toward their degree, but also prepare students for a broad range of career paths. A recent survey from the Association of American Colleges and Universities (AAC&U) shows employers "strongly agree" that "regardless of a student's field of study" liberal arts skills best prepare students to enter the job market in their career of choice.
