

Suggested Course Sequence

The MS SLP Program is designed to be completed full-time over the course of two years, including one intersession and one summer. Each student's clinical journey is individual and the sequence of specific clinical experiences may vary.

Fall year one

- SLP 5250 Advanced Anatomy and Physiology 3 credits
 - SLP 5890 Psycholinguistics 3 credits
 - SLP 5275 Diagnosis in Communication Disorders 3 credits
 - SLP 5280 Neurological Bases of Communication 3 credits
 - SLP 5500 Research Methods in Communication Disorders 3 credits
-

Intersession year one

- SLP 5310 Instrumentation 1 credit
-

Spring year one

- SLP 5700 Language Disorders in Children 3 credits
 - SLP 5210 Seminar: Professional Issues and Ethics 2 credits
 - SLP 5450 Dysphagia 3 credits
 - SLP 5850 Acquired Neurogenic Disorders 3 credits
 - SLP 5900 Clinical Practicum in Assessment 1 credit
 - SLP 5910 Clinical Practicum I 2 credits
-

Summer

- SLP 5200 Seminar in Clinical Intervention: Cultural Diversity 2 credits
 - SLP 5911 Clinical Practicum II 1 credit
-

Fall Year Two

- SLP 5305 Audiology 2 credits
 - SLP 5400 Motor Speech Disorders 3 credits
 - SLP 5800 Speech and Phonological Disorders in Children (Speech Sound Disorders) 3 credits
 - SLP 5260 Voice Disorders 3 credits
 - SLP 5912 Clinical Practicum III 1 credit
-

Spring Year Two

- SLP 5350 Aural Rehabilitation 3 credits
 - SLP 5380 Counseling in Speech-Language Pathology 2 credits
 - SLP 5820 Fluency 3 credits
 - SLP 5410 Augmentative and Alternative Communication 3 credit
-

Electives

- SLP 5913 Clinical Practicum IV 1 credit
 - SLP 5916 Experiential Service-Learning Clinical Practicum 0 credits
-

*Additional Electives for students seeking additional certification as a Teacher of Students with Speech and Language Disabilities (TSSLD) in New York State. The following courses are available in addition to the coursework included in the ASHA – CAA accredited MS SLP program:

- SLP 5370 Speech-Language Pathology in the School Setting 1 credit
 - EDU 5600 Foundations of Education 3 credits
-